

2023
ETDP SETA FUNDED TRAINING:

Review of the CHE QAF, HEQMIS

Dates:
10 and 11 October 2023 (2 Days)

APPETD Funding agreement

To be eligible and be considered for the fully funded programme, beneficiaries and their employers should read and understand the terms and conditions as set out below.

Terms and Conditions of programme:

- Beneficiaries who applied for ETDP SETA funded Skills/Capacity Building programmes will be notified by APPETD if they were approved for the specific programmes. If, for some reason, a beneficiary is unable to attend the programme for which they are approved for, they must give APPETD written notice to confirm their withdrawal no later than 5 days before the training is due to start.
- Should you not notify APPETD in time for us to find a replacement for you, your employer will be held liable to repay the full programme fees.
- Beneficiaries MUST ATTEND all training days in full i.e., complete the training.
- Failure to submit required assessments / assignments for competency / completion evaluation will lead to the employer being held responsible to repay the full amount of the programme.

By signing in the designated areas below, you agree that you fully understand and agree to the terms and conditions as set out above. Beneficiary and their employer herewith agree to repay the full amount of the programme should the beneficiary not comply with terms and conditions:
